

ACADEMIC STAFF CURRICULUM VITAE

| Personal details   |  |
|---|--|
| Name  | Dr. Akbar Ismanjanov   |
| Position and Area   | Senior Lecturer, Legal Studies   |
| Designated Responsibilities(Module Leadership, etc.)                  | Module Leader for International Investment Law and Property Law  |
| Education(Higher Education Only) Repeat for each Qualification |  |
| Institution   | University of Westminster (UoW)  |
| Dates   | January 2014 – 7 October 2016  |
| Degrees/diplomas/certificates   | LLM with merit   |
| Institution   | Tashkent State Institute of Law (TSUL)   |
| Dates   | 1 September 2004 – 28 December 2008  |
| Degrees/diplomas/certificates   | Ph.D. in Law   |
| Institution   | Osh University   |
| Dates   | 1 September 1996 – 29 May 2001   |
| Degrees/diplomas/certificates   | Bachelors in Jurisprudence   |
| Work experienceLast 20 years Repeat for each Employment        |  |
| Dates   |  |
| Company   | Westminster International University in Tashkent (WIUT)  |
| Position  | Head of Law Department, Senior Lecturer  |
| Description   | Responsible for quality enhancement of quality assurance in teaching and module management resulted in better learning experience. Also, I tasked with development of subject disciplines with expanding faculty capacity to deliver it. Establishing supportive and stimulating environment with prioritizing outcome-oriented work, aimed at the improvement of teaching methods and techniques, replicating best practices, promoting, generating and implementing innovations in higher education. |
| Dates   | 1 February – 31 August 2013  |
| Company   | ICT News   |
| Position  | Observer   |
| Description   | Monitoring and analysis of ICT trends and analytical writing   |
| Dates   | 1 September 2010 – 30 June 2012  |
| Company   | Stanford University  |
| Position  | Researcher   |
| Description   | Study of the trends of the internet law in Eurasia   |
| Teaching and Educational Interests                                 |  |
| Teaching Interests  | Internet Law, International Investment Law, EU and EU Trade Relations, Property Law and Intellectual Property Law.   |
| Teaching Responsibilities   | Module Leader for International Investment Law and Property Law.   |
| Teaching Projects/Achievements  | Organised Central Asian Law Forum 2021   |

|   |  |
|---|--|
|   | Involved in the grant with University of Westminster-WIUT collaboration grant to carry-out the project on international investment law on the analysis of the bilateral investment treaties.   |
| Research Interests                           |  |
| Area of Interest                                    | Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Computer-Generated Works (CGW), Information as a commodity, originality and idea-expression dichotomy in copyrights, incorporeal property in property law, trade secrets and the law of confidence, EU legal personality and position of EU in international law.   |
| Publications  | Peer-reviewed VAK's approved and international journals <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Legal Regulation of Information as an Object of Civil Law, Philosophy and Law, 2018/1, №11, 76-78.</li> <li>2. Balancing the Legal Interests of the Authors, Publishers and the Users Online, Uzbek Law Review, 2018, №4, 26-28.</li> <li>3. Intermediary Liability of Online Service Providers for Copyrighted Object, Journal of Law Research, 2019, №3, online</li> <li>4. The Ownership of Computer-generated Works Deriving from Artificial Intelligence, Law and Life, 2019, № 1, pp.93-98</li> <li>5. Published monographic book "Legal Regulation of Electronic Information Industry" based on English/EU and American Law, involving areas of intermediary liability, copyright protection in the internet, communication to the public, AI and computer-generated works and going to work on its second edition.</li> <li>6. "Accommodating the Information within the Private Law Categories" in the peer review International Journal of Legal Studies in Warsaw indexed in Copernicus. International Journal of Legal Studies, #1(5) 2019, 307-316</li> <li>7. Information as an Object of Civil Law in the Context or Related Rights, Information Law, No.1 – 2019, 13-15.</li> <li>8. Standards of Protection of Copyrighted Works in the Internet under the EU and UK standards, Philosophy and Law, No.2 – 2019, 35-38.</li> <li>9. International practice on legal regulation of information as an object of property rights, Society of Law, No.3 (85), 2019, 60-65.</li> </ol> |
| Conference and other outputs                        | Convergence of Approaches to Electronic Contracts in English Law and European Union law // International online conference proceedings on "Digital Economy: Impact, Challenges and Prospects", April 23, 2020.   |
| Research Funding/Projects                           | Applied to the EU Jean Monnet Module and Chair grant to further develop the EU Law and EU Trade Relations module aimed to expand subject specialism within the area of studies.  |
| Membership of professional bodies and awards |  |
|   | Member of Internet Lawyers Association   |
| Institutional Responsibilities               |  |
|   | Participant of the research seminars and research working groups   |
|   | At the postgraduate and executive education level law I was involved in delivering of CII program in General Insurance by Chartered Insurance Institute (CII). Together with colleagues from economic and finance departments we delivered courses to leading insurance companies in the market in an online setting. Our training has also been made with attention to possible passing by the clients of the qualification exam in General Insurance 01.   |

